

LAURIER SPECIAL WAS IN WRECK WITH FREIGHT

SIR WILFRID WAS UNINJURED—HON. GEORGE GRAHAM HAD KNEE WRENCHED—ITINERARY WILL NOT BE CHANGED AT ALL AS RESULT.

Winnipeg, August 6.—The Laurier special carrying the Prime Minister and his associates was wrecked between Belle Plaine and Penne last night by colliding with through freight No. 71.

Sir Wilfrid and his party escaped injury altogether, save for a few minor bruises not worth mentioning. The engine men all had sufficient time to jump before the impact and the only man requiring medical attention is Conductor Ed. Cook, who had several broken ribs besides other injuries. The special train carrying Sir Wilfrid Laurier left Moose Jaw at 8 p.m., with running rights over everything west bound.

Work making repairs and they had everything in shape to proceed by nine or ten o'clock this morning.

Blame Not Yet Fixed

The blame for the accident has not been entirely fixed as yet, though it is unofficially reported that train No. 71 had either left the last order point without securing orders, or the orders must have been garbled in receiving in some way. Local railroad officials feel a great deal of regret that such an accident should have happened to the Prime Minister's train and are taking every precaution to have their safety and comfort immediately restored.

Both competent men.

The engineers of both trains are known as two of the most competent men on the road. Engineer Burgess is a man who has been told of to drive almost every notable party in the West and has always been held in the highest trust by the company. Engineer Humble, though not quite so well known, has always been considered a most capable and careful man at the throttle. The Laurier special will again leave this morning as soon as provisioned and repaired; and Sunday will be spent at Battleford.

Regina, August 6.—The Laurier special arrived this morning at 10.30 from Moose Jaw with Engineer Humble at the throttle. The train is now lying in the yard and leaves early to-day for the North. The itinerary being proceeded with as though nothing had happened.

Sir Wilfrid uninjured.

Tomorrow Sir Wilfrid will spend the day at Battleford. Interviewed Sir Wilfrid refuses to talk about the accident, but gave assurances that he is not the slightest injured as a result of the wreck.

As soon as the train stopped here he was off the platform with Senator Gibbs and took a stroll about the city. On every hand he was the recipient of congratulations. Wires came in abundance and Sir Wilfrid had a busy hour in Regina.

Hon. George Graham did not leave the train this morning, but Sir Wilfrid assured the reporters that Mr. Graham is not injured at all.

LOCATING LINE FOR P.C.C. & M.R.

Which Being Interpreted Means the Puncher Creek-Cardston and Montana Railway

Calgary, August 6.—A party of locating engineers in charge of Mr. Astell, chief, left Calgary this week to work on the location of the Puncher Creek-Cardston and Montana railway south from Puncher Creek.

A few days ago Mr. W. A. Lowry received a telegram from J. A. Taylor of the firm of Taylor and Taylor, bankers of New York, asking him to send two parties of locating engineers to Puncher Creek as soon as possible.

As yet, Mr. Lowry has only been able to secure one party, which left for the south on Wednesday morning.

GETTING READY TO SEE BADEN-POWELL

Movement to Organize Boy Scouts of Alberta Launched at Calgary Last Night

(Special to The Capital)

Calgary, August 6.—It seems as though there would soon be a boy scout organization for the whole province of Alberta, for such was recommended by a resolution at a meeting over which the Hon. G. H. V. Bulver, Lieutenant Governor of the province presided at the office of Col. Cruikshank, Seventh Avenue west last night.

The meeting was not public, and the announcement was given of the above detail by the secretary, Canon Hogbin, coupled with the fact that there were representatives present from Calgary, Westkildan, Red Deer, and Okotoks.

A provisional committee was appointed and as soon as possible a convention will be called, cities being allowed to send two representatives and towns and villages one representative each.

CROPS HERE ARE FINEST

T. J. McLeay of the editorial staff of the Brandon Sun, is in the city after having made a most complete tour of the southern provinces, he makes the announcement that he considers the crops in the Edmonton district the finest he has seen in his travels. He states further that he was under the impression that the crops of the north were in an equal state of inferiority as they are in the south, and that reports to that effect are general. His illusion was quickly dispelled, however, as he travelled north.

Mr. McLeay left Brandon a fortnight ago, and since then has been continually on the road. He left last night by the C.N.R.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY. FIREMEN ASK INCREASE

Negotiations Are Friendly and Request Will Likely Be Granted

Montreal, Aug. 6.—The firemen on the eastern division of the Canadian Pacific Railway are now negotiating with the company for a higher scale of wages. It is stated that the negotiations are as they always have been, of a friendly nature, and that until agreed upon no statement of negotiations will be given out. It is practically certain that the men will be given an increase.

BOOSTERS BOOST FORT GEORGE HIGH

"It's All a Hoax," Says Man Who Has Just Returned From the New Town

SITE MAY BE CHANGED
Grand Trunk Engineer Warned Him Not to Buy Lots There Just Yet

Very discouraging reports about Fort George and the district in which it is situated are brought to the city by Mr. Patrick Hayes, an American from Cabinet, Idaho. Mr. Hayes, who was attracted by the fine reports concerning Fort George, while in Calgary some weeks ago, went there via Ascroft, and now returns with the statement that it is "the biggest hoax in the Canadian northwest."

"Mr. Hayes says that at Ascroft he missed the boat for the north and had to travel to Quesnel by automobile, where he made connections with it and proceeded to Fort George. On the boat he says there were several men who did nothing but boost the country, pointing to the shore, characterizing the land as beautiful and immensely rich, and which," he says, "Mr. Hayes considered to be nothing but sand and gravel."

Built on Sand and Gravel

"Fort George is built on sand and gravel, and outside of that here is nothing but dense bush," says Mr. Hayes, "and there is the biggest lot of grafters there that I ever saw. There are 300 people in Fort George doing nothing, simply because there is nothing to do. There are people going in there every day and the same money coming out. After I looked around a bit, I also got out in a hurry."

Site May Be Changed

Mr. Hayes states that there is a company there which bought an acre which forms a triangle on the opposite side of the river from an Indian for $100. The Indian skipped out without furnishing a title and the company is tied up.

It is possible that the real site of the town may be on the opposite side of the river according to Mr. Hayes. He says that prior to his going into that country he was warned by a prominent Grand Trunk Pacific engineer not to buy any lots as the site of the town might be changed.

"Mr. Hayes says that this district appears very good and that he will probably homestead in this district."

MORIBID GIVE UP HOPE OF TRYING TO SEE CRIPPEN

Quebec, Aug. 6.—Quietness has at last settled down on the jail and its surroundings, and the crowds of the morbidly curious about the prison and its approaches are conspicuous by their absence.

The fact has become thoroughly known that there is no possibility for outsiders even with passes to see the interior of the jail to get within any reasonable distance of the cell and corridor occupied by Dr. Crippen or the infirmary in which Miss Leneve is a patient.

Both prisoners are in good health and Dr. Crippen has become used to his guards, but the conversation is of course, quite common place and has never any bearing, even remotely, upon his case.

WAS RUN OVER BY AN ENGINE

William Griffith of Lindsay, Ont., Met Horrible Death at G. T. P. Yards

WAS CRUSHED TO DEATH
No One Saw How Accident Happened—An Inquest This Afternoon

William Griffith, aged 26, employed as a switchman in the yards at the Grand Trunk Pacific shops, was found dead on the tracks at a late hour last night. His body was frightfully mangled, and it was evident that he had been run over by a yard engine.

Dr. Hyslop, who was called, notified Dr. Forin, the coroner, who immediately went to the yards and found the man lying on the track, having had an arm and a leg cut off, and the wheel having passed over his thigh. He was immediately conveyed to Connelly and McKim's undertaking parlors, where an inquest will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Up to the present it is not known how Griffith met his death. When the storm came on at 11 o'clock last night he was standing beside the switching engine. His coat was on the front of the locomotive and he went forward to get it, and put it on, and that was the last that was seen of him.

Shortly afterwards the engine started off up the track, and it is thought that Griffith slipped off the foot-board in front, and so was run over and killed.

At that point the track was being ballasted, and perhaps there had been some of it on the foot-board, which combined with the greasy slipperiness of the plank might have caused him to lose his foothold.

Griffith is 26 years of age, and only came to Edmonton about a year ago from his home town, Lindsay, Ontario.

MINISTRY WINS FIRST SKIRMISH

Clericals in Spain Have Called Off Demonstration Arranged for Tomorrow

TROOPS ARE STILL OUT
Situation Is Still Critical—Legal Action Taken Against the Fanatics

San Sebastian, August 6.—Although the clerical papers are doing their utmost to advise the Catholic demagogue to abstain from any further demonstration, it is called off. Large bodies of the devout, however, continues to enter the movement beyond the leaders, and that trouble will come.

Ministers Victorious

Madrid, August 6.—Through the action of the clericals at Basque, the ministry wins the first victory in the contest between Spain and the Vatican.

The situation throughout the country is critical, and troops are still guarding all affected districts. Legal steps have been taken against fanatics who sent insulting letters to the ministers.

ALPHONSO IN ENGLAND

Cowes, England, August 6.—King Alfonso of Spain is here for the night. He is the guest of Sir Thomas Lipton. He heard of the action of clericals calling off demonstration in Basque. He was highly pleased.

CALGARY CLEARINGS INCREASE

Calgary, August 6.—Calgary's bank clearings continue to increase at a rapid rate and evidence the increasing importance of Calgary as a commercial and financial center. For the week ending Thursday night the Calgary clearing house reported $250,320 as compared with $247,047 for the corresponding week of last year, or an increase of 84.7 per cent. The clearings for the week ending Thursday of last week were $287,274.

This is the season of the year for thin clothes. You'll find that at Kelly & Moore's.

INJUNCTION STOPPED IT

Montreal Civic Investigation Into French Masons Scandal, Halted.

Montreal, Aug. 6.—The Millette charges against Emancipation lodge were followed up today and attracted a large crowd. The proceedings were suddenly brought to an end by an injunction brought out by Mr. James Fortier, restraining the committee from proceeding with the investigation.

IS DISCIPLE OF CODDEN & BRIGHT

Sir Wilfrid, Speaking at Moose Jaw, Says He Aims at Freer Trade

HAVE LIVED ON INCOME
Hon. George Graham Says Outside of G.T.P. We Have Lived Within Our Income

Moose Jaw, August 6.—Some four thousand people greeted the Premier in a crowded rink last evening. He was followed by Premier Scott, F. M. MacDonald, speaker from the Tawja Nation to prove that the Conservatives were identified with protection and stated that under the former tariff the present government have collected another sixty million dollars since they assumed office. The speaker wanted free trade, but admitted that a too precipitate leveling of duties would lead to a financial crisis and direct taxation. The government was making slow but sure progress. He was convinced the best course is a reasonable tariff with relief from burdens on agricultural implements and such manufactures as farmers use and also a maintenance of British preference.

Avoid Racial Appeals.

Herbert Snell, President of the Liberal Association, welcomed the Premier who in voicing his appreciation urged new settlers to aid in making Canada the great nation with the empire. Speaking of the navy and its aspirations, Sir Wilfrid deprecated appeals to racial feelings, asserting that if he could solve the question no other ways, then he would resign.

In fiscal policy the Premier claimed to be a disciple of Bright and Cobden and though the government could not give full the policy of Britain yet the government had given and aimed to give still freer trade. Sir Wilfrid concluded by voicing his appreciation of the welcome accorded him in the province, particularly by Conservatives, who were most cordial.

F. F. Pardee followed with a vigorous address, after whom Hon. Geo. Graham closed the meeting with an exposition of the railway problem. He pointed out that other than the G.T.P., Canada had lived within her income, and had made all necessary improvements from the income during the present regime.

FREIGHT TRAINS CRASH TOGETHER

Wreck on Line a Few Miles Out of Calgary, But No Lives Were Lost

(Special to The Capital)

Calgary, August 6.—Thirty-seven cars loaded principally with cattle, the engine on freight train No. 28 crashed head-on into another freight coming into Calgary about 3 1/2 miles from Sheppard last night about 11:15 past nine o'clock. The impact derailed both engines and a number of cars, but neither received last night stated that no lives were lost. It is said the crews of both engines jumped when they saw that the collision was inevitable.

Consul General Himer was in charge of the freight left Calgary for the east, and the live-stock carried was the property largely of P. Burns Company. The incoming freight was going at a good pace and the inquiry was made one. Fortunately the crew saw that the collision was inevitable and had to jump.

An auxiliary left Calgary as soon as the news of the wreck reached here, and medical help was taken to take care of the men who might have been injured.

COAL IN THE RIVER BED CAUSED DAM'S COLLAPSE

NINE FEET BELOW RIVER BOTTOM IS SOLID COAL AND PILES WOULD NOT HOLD IN THIS VERY WELL—MEN WANT THEIR PAY.

Speaking about the Goose Island dam and the reason why a portion of it was washed away, Mr. Harris, who has been bookkeeper on the works, told The Capital this morning that all the country around Goose Island contains coal in large quantities and when driving piles in the river bottom it was found that after going through about nine feet of gravel, coal was struck. Piles cannot be driven well into coal and consequently the gravel is the main support of the piles.

The reason that the unfinished bents were washed away was because there was no sheet piling to protect the main piles and the water therefore had ample opportunity to wash away the gravel and so support them.

Every now and then there are slices of the dam so that the water hits against the sheet piling and dividing rushes out through the gates. Of course, when the dam is finished the gates will be closed and therefore stop the current digging into the gravel at the bottom.

Two Men Guard Dam

As conditions stand now there are two men guarding the dam which is still incomplete, as the government appropriations for the continuation of the work has all been used.

The authorities are of course applying for another appropriation which.

Some of the workers are the owners of teams which were employed on the dam, and these are compelled to stay in Edmonton keeping their teams in a lively stable at their own expense as well as the expenses that they personally may incur.

PRICE OF BREAD IS UP IN CALGARY

Bakers of Southern City Now Sell It at Rate of Twelve Leaves for One Dollar

(Special to The Capital)

Calgary, Aug. 6.—Price of bread has been raised in the city and from the present look of things it may go higher yet.

Previously, small loaves sold at fourteen leaves for a dollar and now the price demanded is twelve for a dollar, which is an increase of about one and one fifth cents per loaf. The number per dollar may further decrease to ten loaves.

$12,450 IS COST OF JASPER SUBWAY

C. P. R. Plans Submitted to City Show It Will Be Six Hundred Feet Long

The Jasper avenue subway, according to a letter received by Commissioner Boulton from the C.P.R. will cost the city $12,450. When negotiations for the subway were first opened the C.P.R. offered to build a 60-foot subway and shoulder the whole cost. The city stated that they wanted an 80-foot subway and the railroad replied that they would construct it if the city would pay the balance which would amount to about $5,800. After consideration the city decided that it would be better to have a subway the whole width of the street and wrote the C.P.R. asking them if they would build one 100 feet wide. The company replied that they would do so on the same condition, namely that the city pay the difference between the estimated cost of the 60-foot subway and the 100-foot one, which they state would be $12,450.

The subway, according to the preliminary plan, will be 100 feet wide and 600 feet in length. In the centre it will be 14 feet below the level of the ground.

"PRINCESS MAY" STRUCK ON REEF

C. P. R. Alaskan Service Steamer Wrecked, But Passengers All Landed Safely

Vancouver, Aug. 6.—The Canadian Pacific's 1700-ton steel steamship, Princess May which left Skagway, Alaska, yesterday for Vancouver, struck on a reef off Sentinel Island, north of Juneau in the Lynn canal, at two o'clock this morning, in a dense fog and a smooth sea. She was two hours later. All the passengers and crew, numbering 68, were taken off in the boats, for the sea was calm as a millpond. They landed safely ashore this morning.

There was great anxiety early in the day, as the first message received from the sinking ship and heard at Astoria, Juneau and other points, was the only authentic news obtainable.

Late in the afternoon another dispatch came from Juneau stating that the vessel had hit and remained on the reef, and that during that time, in a calm sea and with every other condition in their favor, the passengers and crew were transferred to the small boats and life rafts and taken safely to shore.

It is presumed that they landed on one of the small islands in the neighborhood and that they will likely reach Juneau this evening or tomorrow. From there a steamer can be obtained for Vancouver with probably not more than a day's delay.

SMALLPOX IN TORONTO

Toronto, Aug. 6.—Two cases of smallpox were discovered in the city yesterday. Both are now isolated in the hospital.

'SCONA WINS SHIELD

Gets Earl Grey Prize for Having Most Cadets Per Population

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—The first winner of the Earl Grey Challenge Shield is the city of Stratford, Ontario. The conditions of the competition were that the shield was to go to the town or city in Canada having the largest number of cadets in proportion to its population. The population was figured from January 1, 1910, and the number of cadets from the actual strength of the corps on May 24th last. Stratford has a population of 5,000 and has 150 cadets. The second place goes to a county in Quebec.

ALFONSO IN COLLISION

Southampton, Aug. 6.—King Alfonso and Queen Victoria had a bad race just this evening or tomorrow. When a strong wind and heavy tide drove the two tenders in which they and their suite were being conveyed from the steamer into violent collision. The windows and chandeliers of the tenders were broken and the vessels themselves damaged. There was great alarm momentarily, but the tenders soon righted and proceeded without further mishap.

SATURDAY, AUG. 6, 1910.

A correspondent writes as follows to the Stony Plain Gazette after a visit to this city:

"Edmonton badly needs a nice public park, together with a collection of interesting native birds and animals as an attraction with a band playing there on Sunday and refreshments served. Edmonton at present is like a pauper's graveyard on Sunday. Why?
All through the mid-directed energies of that narrow minded band, branded the Lord's Day Alliance, which ought to be called, The Alliance with Satan for spoiling Sunday for the working man."

There is no question about the need for the park and the attractions suggested would be all right. On a hot Sunday it is pitiable to see people wandering about the streets looking for a bit of shade in order to spend their few hours of leisure. It is bad enough now but what it is going to be like when the city is closely built up. The neglect to make provision for breathing spots close to the center of population is a crime against posterity. What the Lord's Day Alliance has to do with all this is, however, a mystery.

John Coleman of Edmonton has been visiting Winnipeg for the first time since 1877. To the Free Press he gives his impressions of the changes that have been wrought in the interval.

"A pastime," it tells us, "which Mr.
Coleman delights in when he is in Edmonton is frequenting the moving picture shows, but the best moving picture show he has yet seen was the one he enjoyed yesterday when standing on the busy corner of Portage avenue and Main street. It was more human, more natural, and had not the objectionable phases which were too often seen in the shows. He wondered at the manner in which the various horse vehicles, motor cars, street cars, bicycles, and pedestrians passed each other, crossing and re-crossing the streets without any accidents taking place. "You may laugh at me," he remarked to the reporter, "but you go and live in the bush for 33 years and will have another view of your city. My! it's wonderful!"

"The youthful appearance of the women of Winnipeg was another thing that amazed Mr. Coleman. He made some guesses at the ages of the passing ladies, and was dumfounded when he was missing his guess about each time by twenty years or so. A woman of 50 summers appeared to him about 30 years old. He had great difficulty in distinguishing between mothers and their daughters."

All of this is doubtless very interesting to Winnipeg. But one may naturally ask where Mr. Coleman has been putting in his time while in Edmonton? Does he have to go to Winnipeg to see motors and street cars and bicycles and pedestrians crossing and re-crossing in the manner described? We had an idea that this treat could be enjoyed occasionally on Jasper avenue. And the gets on to more dangerous ground still when he comes to discuss the women in law.
Do the Edmonton women of this law really look as old as their sisters in Winnipeg who have reached the half-century mark? Has anybody else found this so? Some explanations are surely forthcoming. It is possibly there has been some mistake about Mr. Coleman's postoffice address.

The death of Linley Saabourne, chief cartoonist of Punch, removes a man who upheld a great tradition in mastery fashion. No journal of his character the world over can compare for a moment in the genuineness of its humor, the sanity and independence of its judgments on public questions and in its merits from the standpoint of friendship with this old standby "the daddy of them all" Mr. Saabourne succeeded Sir John Tenniel on the latter's retirement some years ago, after being for many years in training for the post. In all probability he will in turn be succeeded by Bernard Partridge, probably the most brilliant cartoonist brought out in recent years.

What Others Say

INVESTING IN CANADA

The London manager of the Bank of Montreal writes to the London Canadian Gazette in answer to the question, "Why I Invest in Canada?" One of the reasons offered is because Canada is one of the integral parts of the British Empire, where rights are respected. Justice is obtainable and law administered in a manner comparing favorably with England and any other portion of Greater Britain.
Canada is a country with a bracing climate and of vast natural resources in agriculture, timber, minerals and fisheries with an additional asset of incomparable value for manufacturing purposes in its unsurpassed water powers. Another important factor which is mentioned is that Canada is practically immune from war, in which remote contingency, even assuming that the United States were the victors, property rights and the obligations of federal and provincial governments would surely be respected.
While not venturing to boast that the banking and currency systems are the best in the world, the writer is unhesitatingly that they are admirably adapted for the requirements of the country, in striking contrast to the banking and currency systems of the people to the south. The most conspicuous feature of our currency system is that the note issue is secured on the general assets of the respective banks, constituting a prior lien, with absolute elasticity the result. It is no exaggeration to state that our wise banking laws have assisted beyond all else in the development of Canadian resources.

The protection furnished by the federal and provincial governments to property is equal to the protection afforded in France. He believes that sound securities will continue to appreciate in value.

VOLIVA'S TRIUMPH

A somewhat astonishing illustration of what can be accomplished by the exercise of patience and tenacity in the pursuit of one's end is given in the success which has met Wilbur Glen Voliva's efforts to secure control of Zion City and as successor to the late John Alexander Dowrie rule the church which that enterprising individual established.

It will be remembered that Dowrie brought Voliva with him from the Antipodes to act in the capacity of lieutenant and endowed him with a considerable share of authority. Voliva however, was not long content to play the part of second fiddle in the Zion orchestra and organized a revolt against his benefactor and master. The time chosen for his defection was not inopportune. Dowrie was declining in years and health and domestic troubles had added to his burden. Had he lived he would undoubtedly have beaten Voliva but his death left no one capable of measuring weapons with the resolute insurgent.

A strong feeling in the church against Voliva, however made the realization of his ambition to succeed to Dowrie's leadership a task of some difficulty. During the past few years while he has been endeavoring to reconcile parties and interests in the church he has had the mortification of seeing many adherents fall away until the sect is now represented by little more than the inhabitants of Zion City itself. At last, however, the stronghold of the Dowrie faith has capitulated to his assaults through the courts and his diplomatic overtures offering a general pardon to his enemies if they would submit.

The telegraphic account of the reinstatement of Voliva and the final success of his struggle reads like a tale out of some romance in which a weary and confused people are glad to lay down their weapons of offence and acknowledge any leadership which would promise them peace.

"Silver coins and bills a foot deep," this narrative tells us, "were thrown into a tire-colored barrel, placed before the pulpit at Zion City Tabernacle yesterday by the followers of Wilbur T. Voliva, general overseer of the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church of Zion, and successor to John Alexander Dowrie, who marched over the north shore city and took formal possession of the buildings, which last week again came into their control through the action of the federal court in dissolving the restriction. It was a revival of the old days of Dowrie.
The call for the free will offering preceded the march about the city and thousands of men, women and children filed past the tire-colored barrel

TRIBUTE TO SIR WILFRID

Canadian Writer Tells of the Prime Minister of All Canada

LAURIER IS "BONHOMME"

He Has Many Opponents But No Enemies—Great Knowledge of Public Affairs

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has served his country in its parliaments for thirty-nine years. He entered the Legislature of Quebec on November, 1871, and was elected to the House of Commons from the same district. Three years later, October 8, 1874, entered the cabinet with the portfolio of land revenue. The following day he presented a bill for the extension of on October 27, when the polls closed.
It was found that he had been defeated by a majority of twenty-two votes. On November 25 he was re-elected from Quebec East, and has represented that constituency since that day.

On September 1, 1878, the government was defeated by a majority of eighty-six. On October 8, Mr. Mackenzie resigned office, and on April 28, 1880, he retired from the leadership of the opposition. He was succeeded by Mr. Edward Blake, and he retired June 2, 1887. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was unanimously chosen leader on June, and has occupied that place for twenty-three years. In 1896 the Liberals were returned to parliament in the majority, and their leader became prime minister, a post which he still holds.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was born on November 20, 1841, at St. Lin, in the county of Assumption. His father was a land surveyor. His grandfather was a farmer yet interested in mathematics and the science of those days. His mother was Marcelle Martineau. Her only child was Wilfrid, and she died when he was four years old. On May 13, 1868, he married Zoe Lafontaine, of Montreal. That Zoe is his wife is marvellous—these are two of the four events of real importance in his life.

Notable Servant
The most notable servant of the crown in the overseas dominions are Botha, and Laurier and Mr. Louis Borha, and Laurier and Mr. Louis Borha. They are the most useful of all the servants of the crown. In the first speech in the first speech delivered in parliament he declared that, under the British constitution, we had freedom, privilege and power. It was the first time that men ever lived and especially fitted to unite of different races, nationalities, and religions. These sentiments were uttered nearly forty years ago, and the speaker has never since departed from them. Unless one gains a close apprehension of this central thought, he can form no estimate of what Sir Wilfrid Laurier has done for Canada, and for the world. Still less can he follow the course which he has consistently pursued.

He is not an idealist. He is a practical statesman who prefers to get a thing done in the best way it can be done rather than not get it done at all. He is not fond of the impossible. What he can do he does by persistence never attempts to do by force.

He is fully aware how complicated a business the world is, how selfish some men are and how foolish all are. For both he has an immense toleration. He is always amused but never annoyed; and with all his experience, his experience has not made him hopeless or sad. He is a man of vision, of imagination and yet he has never brought himself to really believe that the men by whom he is surrounded are angels, no matter how faithfully he may defend them, or that his opponents are always hopelessly in the wrong.

Possibly the education which he received at his father's school may help to account for his sagacious and sympathetic attitude towards all opinions, no matter how absurd they may seem. The motherless boy attended the elementary school of his native parish till he was twelve years old.
Then he spent a year at a Protestant school at New Glasgow, and lived with an Irish family. Much of his leisure was spent in the house of John Murray who was an elder in the church of Scotland, and had been educated for his ministry. In proof of this sentiment his own words are quoted: "The pure family life and the goodly conduct of the Murrays increased in me and convinced me that a Protestant can be an earnest, true Christian, as well as a Catholic."

His Education
The next seven years were spent in L'Assomption College, one of those institutions which are the best refuges of education on the American Continent. In 1861 he entered McGill University, and graduated from the Faculty of Law at the expiration of his course. In the valedictory address which he made to his fellow students he charged them that their mission was to give justice to the right; to separate the true from the false; to maintain the rights of citizens; to preserve the government; to preserve for the family its inheritance the individual his honor, for the public the just expression of his conscience hold within limits the audacity of the powerful; and to relieve the wretchedness of the weak, without violence to the one, or indulgence to the other.

He was brought up in a hard school. Before his political and religious trials. Politics were not then a question of awarding a contract or filling an office. The issue was whether free born men should govern themselves, or whether they should be governed by the terms of the Programme Catholique which was the last political expression of ultramontanism, or by the Protestant Democratic Association, or by both.

Those were the days, too, when Canada was a congeries of widely separated provinces with different hostile interests. The sound of the Pupine gun had scarcely died out and Lyon Mackenzie's efforts had not yet fully decided if the executive power was to be subject to the control of parliament, or if it would surrender to the people the privileges which it had usurped and which it had maintained. It is little wonder then that Sir Wilfrid learned how to handle himself as he does in a debate over the production of some papers, we shall say, or at an imperial conference the closest war with the empire are assembled.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier came to the scrutiny of British institutions with a fresh eye; and he was quick to discover the high place which government by party holds. Before a party can govern it must get into power; and to get into power it must have must stay in power. Sir Wilfrid never forgets that, whilst he is prime minister, he is also leader of a party, and he is as zealous in performing the duties of the one as of the other.
Anyone who supposes that he does not understand the management of a campaign will find himself sadly mistaken and opponents who resort to subtlety, address, and skill in finding themselves over-matched.

Always Tells Truth Sir Wilfrid Laurier always tells the truth, or rather he never says a thing which is not true. At times he allows his opponents to remain in doubt, or even as victims of their own misconceptions. Yet one would not say that he was exclusively a man of policy in political affairs. He can manage a campaign or a debate in parliament with equal ease. On the other hand he is not a man who favors the method being to encourage his opponents to raise a cloud of dust in which they may not find their way.
That plan worked to perfection in the debate upon the Naval Bill.

And yet, on the other hand, he has a mind of extreme imagination, direct-ness, and he has almost said simplicity. He has the faculty of getting hold of a thing by the right end, of seeing into the heart of a matter, and handling his material in the most natural, and therefore easiest way. He gives the impression that one receives upon beholding a practised craftsman engaged in tasks which to the uninitiated find their way. He does not do much labor.

It is easy to know what he will do in any given case. All he has to do is to ask one's self what is the common sense of the "hic." Then one knows what course the speaker will take, whether it is a question of giving solace to Protestants or to Catholics, making a treaty, building navy, sending armed forces overseas or preparing for consolidation and not being. No one understands better the solving power of his upon political problems.

No man in Canadian public life has received more attention at the hands of political culminators. He has been blamed by Protestants for being a good Catholic, and he has been accused by Catholics of being a bad Catholic. At one election it was affirmed that he was a Protestant minister, apostate and a companion of the excommunicated.

Personal Honor Intact

The English have blamed him for speaking French; and his own people have blamed him for speaking French with an English accent. All of which means that he is a man first and a Catholic and a Frenchman afterwards. Even the crime of treason has been laid to his charge; but all the notice the detractors received was a sad smile and a few chance reflections upon their foolishness rather than upon their wickedness. In forty years, however, no opponent has been so base as to utter a slander which touches his personal honor, the purity of his private life, or the righteousness of his character.

He has opponents but no enemies, and that is the highest achievement of a man who has been in public life nearly all his days. In the tortuous course of the political way, no matter how sudden the emergency, has never been known to utter an ill-natured expression and rarely a harsh one.

His knowledge is so exact, his mastery of public affairs so great, and the discipline of his party so firm that parliament is disposed to rely more absolutely than on any other direction of one individual. In this Sir Wilfrid has the defect of his quality.

To write the life of Sir Wilfrid Laurier is to write the history of Canada for half a century. That is not the present intention, especially as the task has already been so admirably performed by Mr. Willison; but rather to give a view from near observation of the person of a great and faithful servant of the people of Canada and of the British crown.

But no expense of writing can convey a complete idea of the humorous face, his expression which is more than quaint and not quite whimsical his old-world way of standing and moving, his gentle courteous bearing, his affable, complaisant, winsome cherry manner, which may all be summed up in the word debonaire.
Laurier is no less interesting a figure than her husband. She gives one the impression of being in her own home entertaining her neighbors. The friendly frankness of her speech, the accuracy of her comment, the shrewd wit, the justness of her opinions, especially upon the conduct proper to women is a refreshment.

Vulgarity is only another name for contented second-raters.

ESKIMO ERRORS ARE VERY COSTLY

Poor Fielding is Losing the Games for the Locals—Double-header Today
Winnipeg, Aug. 6.—Rowland's progress has been a victory off the Eskimos, 7-6, after an exciting contest. In the fourth, the Edmonton team looked like winners, making the circuit four times, but the Maroons profiting by blunders, tied the score in the eighth and clinched the game in the ninth. The Maroons are playing a good class of ball now.

CALLIES WON FINAL GAME

Immense Crowd Saw St. Georges Defeated by the Score of 1-0.
"Come Awa" the Callies' shouted the lusty tongue-tied at Diamond Park last night and the Callies came awa'. It must be admitted that they had an extremely hard time gaining their victory, and on several occasions the Callies' if their one goal head would be overcome. The St. Georges proved the toughest nut the Callies have ever cracked and many spectators left the grounds with the firm impression that the best team had not won. At 7:15 Referee T. C. Atkinson got the game started and the teams lined up as follows: Callies A. (1) St. Georges (0).
Wilson.....Goal.....E. Parker McKenzie.....r. back.....C. Parallels Twedeale.....l. back.....Loveclough

From the kick-off the Saints rushed play and quickly had the ball in the vicinity of the Blues' goal. Penalties were numerous about this time and the Callies were the worst of the fenders. For about 15 minutes the Saints had the best of the play and Tompkins Crews and Ruff were prominent on the attack. Callies seemed to find themselves and the ball was transferred to the other end, the ending in a shot which went over the bar. The Drakons again rushed and Wilson was called upon to stop a hard shot from Tompkins. A moment later Crews sent in a hard one which skimmed the bar. Callies again rushed, Findlay and Chapman getting chances, but sending in futile shots.
Just before the whistle blew, the Callies forced play and Loveclough kicked out to save trouble. A low shot from Todd was well-handled by Parker and half-time was called with the score 0-0.

Sir Will at Game
Moore Jaw, Aug. 6.—Nearly two thousand people saw Sir Willfrid Laurier pitch the first ball for the Robin Hood's last night and start them on the road to victory. The Premier and party witnessed the game, which was a good one, but partly one-sided. The score was 6 to 2.

TENDERS FOR GROAT RAVINE BRIDGE IN

Wide Difference in Estimate—Were Referred to the City Engineer to Pass Upon

There were tenders submitted for consideration to the commissioners yesterday for the contract for the construction of the bridge over the Great Ravine. Each of the tenders more or less complicated, and they were referred to the city engineer's department for a report as to the best of the four. The following companies tendered:
Dominion Bridge Co., per Gorman, Clancey and Grindley, $59,702.
Canadian Bridge Co., per Walker and Barnes, $46,650. With one side-walk, $48,450.
Structural Steel Co., per Walker and Barnes, $46,000. With one side-walk, $45,100.
Algonia Steel Co., $59,300.

The plans for the Jasper Avenue subway were before the meeting and it was decided that the Mayor compare them with the agreement between the city and the C.P.R.

Local Improvements
It was decided that the following local improvements be done this summer, work to be started immediately: Grading—Majorie Street, Hamilton to river.
Rowland Street, Ottawa to Government avenue.
Sinclair Street, Pine Avenue to Athabasca Avenue.
First Avenue, Boulevard to Alberta Avenue.
Kirkness Street, Pine Avenue to Alberta Avenue.
Kirkness Avenue, Pine Avenue to Alberta Avenue.
Carey Street, Willow Avenue to Alberta Avenue.
Kennedy Street, Spruce Avenue to Alberta Avenue.
Lorne Avenue, Boulevard to Beech Avenue.
Currie Street, Calgary Avenue to south end of street.
Park Street, St. Albert Trail to Alberta Avenue.
Edwards Street, Asany Street to Alberta Avenue.
Sewerage—Government Avenue, Jasper to Christabelle Street.
Leave Arches for the Fair.

Edward J. Frean, secretary-treasurer of the United Farmers of Alberta, invited the city's representatives to attend a convention of business men, farmers and others in Vancouver. The letter will be laid before the city council.

Jas. Carruthers, through his agent here, J. E. Wallbridge, and other property owners in the west, have signed their consent to the change of the date of the completion of the Athabasca Bridge from December 31st, 1910, to May 11, 1911.

Manager Harrison of the Exhibition Association suggested that the Laurier arch be left in position until after the exhibition, which will be done, providing they remain green.

N. Y. LOCHINVAR AND BRIDE RETURN HOME

John Leslie Momand, Who Stole Fine-ance of Howard Hegeman, is Back

New York, Aug. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. John Leslie Momand came back from their wedding tour to Bermuda today on the Royal Mail liner Trent. Mr. Momand is 21 years of age and his wife is 18 and they do not look any older, which is but right and proper. Considering that their marriage was a romance of this big city which is full of romances, by the way, is well-known to those who know romance when they see it.

Mr. and Mrs. Momand eloped from Martin's on the night of June 7. Mrs. Momand at that time was Miss Ardele Gulick. She was engaged to be married to Howard Hegeman, of Chicago, who is 25 years of age, and the proprietor of a flourishing business and a bank account in similar condition.

Mr. Hegeman and Miss Gulick and a chaperon were dining at Martin's the plans for the Jasper Avenue subway were before the meeting and it was decided that the Mayor compare them with the agreement between the city and the C.P.R.

The Ideal Table Water

Apert entirely from its palatability as a simple, natural table beverage, MAGI Water owes its popularity as a table water largely to its therapeutic value. Drunk before meals, the flow of the gastric juice is excited and digestion helped; drunk after meals, the acidity of the stomach is neutralized. MAGI is a natural mineral water and contains no added salts nor foreign solutions. It possesses the crystal purity and energy and is free of heavy elements. It is a natural mineral water. Drinking in the hottest months of the year, MAGI comes right from the mountain springs and is as pure and fresh as Nature made it.

The Weather
Alberta—Generally fair and comparatively cool today and Sunday. Manitoba and Saskatchewan—Showery and cooler with local thunderstorms. Sunday mostly fair.

About Town
LaRue Bros., whose farm is several miles out on the Stony Plain road began to cut their barley yesterday, which is a record in the Edmonton district.
The ladies of the Grace Church began having their refreshments at the Fair Grounds this year, they having already secured a lovely shed spot for their tent.

The death occurred last evening of the infant child of William Penock, of 39 Ottawa Avenue. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The funeral of James Sangster, who died on Wednesday night at the City hospital, will take place Sunday afternoon at half-past two from Andrew's undertaking rooms to the Edmonton cemetery.

The marriage was solemnized at the Westminster Presbyterian manse yesterday by Rev. C. A. Myers, of Mr. Wm. Duncan Ross, of Edmonton, to Miss Jessie Macfarlane, of Ruthven, Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Ross will reside at 61 McCauley Street.

Forty stereoscopic pictures will be shown at the Starland Theatre Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, illustrating the life of Jesus. These pictures are copies from the great master.

In the evening Rev. Frank Pratt will give his second address upon "The Modern View of the Bible."
Two more of the street cars ordered by the city from the Ottawa Car Company will arrive on Monday according to information received by Commissioner Bouillon. The remainder of the order which consists of two cars will not be on hand for another month or six weeks.

Sunday afternoon service at the Orpheum Theatre at 4 o'clock promises to be of exceptional interest. The committee of the local branch of the Temperance and Moral Reform League have secured a "censorship film" for the occasion. Mr. D. MacGregor will sing and Mr. S. Brown will take the choir. All seats are free.

C. E. Usher, assistant general traffic manager of the C.P.R., who is on his regular inspection trip, was in the city yesterday, and stated that there was no announcement as yet to make regarding a through service from Edmonton to Winnipeg, via Saskatoon. Mr. Usher stated that there was much traffic now on all lines of the road. He left last night for Calgary.

The usual men's service will be held next Sunday in the Y.M.C.A. at 3 p.m. Bright music and discussion of Scriptural subjects of interest to young men. The topic for next Sunday will be "Jesus' Conception of His Social Mission"; its relation to the State." Mr. C. E. Race will introduce the subject, after which there will be a general discussion. After the service a social hour will be spent at a supper which will be served by a committee of members for all who wish to remain. All strangers in the city are cordially invited.

Personal

Mr. St. George Jellett is expected back from his holidays at the end of next week. His arm, which was broken by a fall when stepping of a street car, in Toronto, is mending quickly, and Mr. Jellett will soon be in his usual good health.

ARE NO OBSTACLES

L. R. Voligny, After Going Over the Route, Approves of Edmonton—Peg Canal Scheme

According to Mr. L. R. Voligny, chief engineer of the survey which is being made of the Saskatchewan river, in connection with the proposed Edmonton-Winnipeg waterways, there is no obstacle in the way of constructing a waterway between this city and Le Pas Mission. Mr. Voligny has travelled the entire distance by boat and finds that but for a few bad rapids and one or two shifting canals there is nothing serious in the way of a hindrance. The only point where an artificial water route would be necessary is at the La Colle rapids near Prince Albert, Sask. The most difficult part of the route would be necessary at the La Colle rapids near Prince Albert, Sask. The most difficult part of the route would be necessary at the La Colle rapids near Prince Albert, Sask.

Mr. Voligny stated that six parties were engaged in the survey work, four of which were running levels and the remaining two running triangles.

NO DISSATISFIED AMERICAN FARMERS

At Least Not Among Those Who Have Settled in Western Canada

"We make no effort to contradict the misrepresentations at present being circulated in the States, which say that American settlers are leaving Canada," said Mr. W. T. White, superintendent of the Dominion Government immigration agencies in the United States. "The only effect they have upon our work is to make us redouble our efforts. We make known the facts concerning Canada and let them speak for themselves." Mr. White arrived in town last evening and is looking up districts from which samples of grain may be sent to fairs in United States.

American Farmers are Allies
"The number of prosperous and contented American settlers in Canada are our strongest allies in this work," he said. "They often go home at Christmas, and when they do our agents arrange to meet them and arrange meeting at which they testify as to the conditions of the district where they have been."

"I have been searching for discontented Americans in the West, and so far have failed to find them. During the last fortnight I have been touring through eastern Saskatchewan to Edmonton, and everywhere I have met American settlers delighted with their conditions in this year."

"The few one meets who are dissatisfied are the kind that idle room and bars, and the States are quite welcome to them."

Big Indian Year
Mr. White predicted that 150,000 American would settle in Canada this year, and already the number has reached 90,000, so that it is probable his prophecy will be fulfilled. Every year he makes this trip to inspect the crops, and to ascertain the possibilities for settlement in the districts as yet undeveloped.

All through the northern parts of this province he said he found the crops pretty fair. In the district northeast and west of Edmonton there are good crops as he ever saw, especially the barley, which is growing excellently.

In Edmonton he found few crops that were not good, some farmers estimating their yield from 20 to 35 bushels per acre, with cuts from 60 to 70, but the best crops he saw were around Battleford.

Speaking of one district being more fertile than another, Mr. White said that quite frequently when he asked a few farmers about the land adjoining his he got a very unfavorable reply. Many of the farmers have this habit of discounting the price of buyers, simply because they can use the land themselves for cutting hay or running cattle over.

Mr. White leaves Edmonton today, and will continue his tour on the line south. He may also go west to Edson.

"LA PRESSE" REPRESENTATIVE HERE.

Mr. Gilbert La Rue, representative of the "La Presse," the well-known Montreal newspaper arrived in town yesterday, in order to study the conditions of French-Canadian people in the North-West. He has spent two months in Manitoba, and is working now in Alberta.

"La Presse" is the leading French newspaper of the province of Quebec, and Mr. La Rue will send reports on every centre where French-Canadians are numerous. He is stopping at the Cecil Hotel. After touring Alberta, he will visit Saskatchewan.

'SCONA COUNCIL IS IN THE BIG PARADE

Some Few Changes Have Been Made in the Order of the Carriages

Several changes in the order of the carriages for the procession in honor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier have been made by the committee in charge of the arrangements for the celebration. The carriage following that of the Prime Minister will contain the Hon. Frank Oliver, Hon. Geo. P. Graham, Hon. C. W. Cross, and Ald. Miller. Mr. Jas. McGeorge, president of the board of trade, will ride in carriage four with E. A. McDonald, M.P., Hon. C. R. Mitchell, and Ald. Lundy.

Sergeant Lee, of the 19th A.M.R., will act as marshal of the parade. Instructions have been issued to the roadway departments to have the streets on which Tuesday's parade is to pass cleaned and put in order.

Strathcona Council in it. The committee have extended an invitation to Mayor Duggan, and the City Council of Strathcona to take part in the procession, and it has been concluded. An invitation has also been issued to all citizens who wish to take part and automobiles will be permitted to follow on behind the carriages, but will not be allowed in the body of the parade.

The address which is to be presented to the Prime Minister by Mayor Lee in front of the Yale Hotel, after the conclusion of the parade, is on exhibition in the windows of the Acme Company, corner Second and Jasper Avenue. The address is very tasty in appearance, and is decorated
